

Europeans Explore the East

In section 1 of chapter 19, you will study how various European countries began exploring all corners of the globe and essentially changed the world forever. Using the map on the back, complete the steps below to chart the destinations of those countries that began an age of conquest, exploration, and trade.

1. Locate and label these bodies of water and shade them BLUE.
  - a. Atlantic Ocean
  - b. Indian Ocean
  - c. Strait of Malacca
  - d. Pacific Ocean
  - e. Arabian Sea
  - f. Mediterranean Sea
  - g. East China Sea
  - h. South China Sea
2. Locate and label Portugal and color it YELLOW.
3. Using pages 530, 532, and 533 in your text, color all areas explored by the Portuguese in YELLOW.
4. Locate and label Spain and color it GREEN.
5. What lands did Spain lay claim to and how did the Portuguese react?
6. What was the solution?
7. Locate and label The Netherlands (Dutch) and color it ORANGE.
8. Describe what the Dutch East India Company was and how they dominated their respective area.
9. Locate and label China and color it PURPLE.
10. Locate and label Japan and color it BLACK.
11. Locate and label England and color it RED.
12. Locate and label France and color it BROWN.
13. What role did the British and French play concerning trade in Asia (p.535)?

